Dan Coldwell Head Coach

dan@coldwellgroup.ca 647-287-2172

Entering his 4th year with the Aeros, and his 2nd as U18 Head Coach, Dan is highly experienced with extensive leadership skills and a track record of success in helping both female athletes and coaches reach their full potential. He is a collaborative coach who values people and the contribution they make to their teams, and known to be a provider of clear direction, sense of purpose and consistency resulting in high-performing, engaged teams. Prior to joining the Aeros, Dan spent 17 seasons with Central York Panthers where his teams won 14 tournaments and a Provincial Championship. He enjoys cordial relationships with many NCAA and USports coaches, helping many players further their playing careers in university. Aside from hockey, Dan is a Certified Financial Planner and currently operates his own Consulting Business, where he conducts Corporate Leadership training.

Nav Biln Associate Coach

Nav has instructed in hockey development since 2003 with such well-respected hockey schools as Sk8on before starting his own hockey school H72ckey, and has been coaching elite level hockey from Novice AAA to Midget AAA boys in the OMHA since 2008. Nav first brought his extensive technical knowledge to the female game in 2017-18, when he led the Midget AA Brampton Canadettes to the Provincial Championship title, placing 4th at the Esso Cup National Championship in his first season coaching girls. With a passion to learn and teach the game, Nav has worked with many players from the NHL, AHL, OHL and NCAA collegiate hockey. He also continues to coach and mentor young players, working alongside the 2019 Telus Cup National Championship team, the Toronto Young Nationals, and many players. Nav has been a Head and Associate Coach with the Aeros since 2020.

Dayle Wilkinson Associate Coach

In her 4th season coaching with the Aeros, Dayle is also a two year Junior Aeros alumna and Aeros Assistant Captain, winning PWWL and Provincial Championships. She also competed with Team Ontario Red, capturing a National Championship in 2009. Dayle went on to play Defence at St. Lawrence University on scholarship for 4 years. At St. Lawrence, Dayle helped her team win their first ever ECAC Championship in 2011-12. Dayle was also voted best defensive player for three consecutive years and was a Captain in her senior year. Academically, Dayle earned ECAC All-Academic Honors and was accepted into the National Sociology Students Honors Society. She entered the M.S. Clinical Mental Health Counselling program at Plymouth State University and was an Assistant Coach for their Division III hockey team in 2014-15. Also a Registered Psychotherapist in Ontario, Dayle is currently working as a Vision Therapist.

Marc Rowe Associate Coach

In his 2nd season as U18 AA Coach, Marc's playing career included four years of Junior "A" hockey in the CJHL and a CCHL league championship with the Nepean Raiders. He has a passion for the game of hockey and for player development, believing in bringing out the full potential of every player. Marc is driven to create a positive and inclusive environment where all players can thrive both on and off the ice. Marc resides in Newmarket, ON with his fiancée Adrienne, and works for TaylorMade Golf.

Welcome to the 2023-24

U18 AA Toronto Aeros

Team Mandate

To provide an elite U18 girls' hockey program with high standards of commitment and skill development;

.....
To prepare players to play at the next level;

.....
To promote the importance of a higher education for our players;

.....
To maintain the Aeros reputation as a "high class" organization with a high code of conduct for players and team staff;

.....
To emphasize continuous improvement of the entire team and all players rather than individual statistics and winning all games.

A Tradition of Excellence
